HOW TO MAKE A MILLION DOLLARS: Here is a money saving idea for the Republicans. It looks like President Eisenhower will run again—so why waste the time and money of holding a big convention in San Francisco? Why not ballot by mail? There will be 125 delegates. Mail would cost $158.76 postage (air mail both ways). No charge for counting the ballots—Republican Chairman Len Hall would be happy to do that for free. Estimated savings—more than a million dollars. The Republicans could give that money for heart research. This would do good. Would save wear and tear on political nerves. And save many a T-V viewer hours and hours of lost precious sleep.

SMATHERS FOR VICE PRESIDENT? The move is gaining ground. First Senator Lyndon Johnson said last year, "There's bound to be a call on Smathers for leadership on a national level." Then National Democratic Chairman Butler repeated it. Syd Herlong is latest to add his word. "Whisper here is that Senator Lyndon Johnson eyed that spot, but because of his heart attack, changed his mind—now is pushing Smathers for it. Senator Smathers says he is flattered, but he likes the U.S. Senate. (After all, isn't the vice president of the United States the presiding officer of the Senate?)

NO SURPLUS HERE: Congressman Bob Smith moved quickly to take full advantage of the president's proposed national soil-bank. "Plant this land with trees," Smith said. "The tree crop is one that is not in surplus. It never has been in surplus. A recent survey shows that for the next 50 years we'll have an increasing need for the products of our forests."

Slates was speaking in favor of the bill to give seedlings to farmers who would plant their open lands that have been cleared surplus. The bill also provides the additional technical forest management assistance necessary to insure a good job of planting and care of the seedlings. "The tree crop," Slates said, "has been paying an average 15% on investment. Whether the tree owner grows pulp wood or cellulose or left to grow to maturity for lumber, the tree owner is bound to profit."

RESERVATIONS CLOSE MON. FOR WED. GAME PARTY

Mrs. Robert Cameron, chairman, said this week that reservations will be taken through Monday evening for the public benefit games party being given by the Belle Glade Woman's Club on Wednesday at the American Legion Hall.

The party, set for 1:30 p.m., is for the benefit of the Swimming Pool Fund, and reservations may be made with Mrs. Cameron or with Mrs. J. L. Murphy. Bridge fans are requested to make up their own tables. Mrs. Cameron said that the prizes have been donated by local merchants.

BY SCHATZI

Boy, am I looking forward to a big Saturday night!

My glorious anticipation began as I perused the Southern Bell Telephone Company's ads about the switchover to "WYman 6."

Now "WYman 6" recalls to mind several other import-loaded exchanges—

There's "Butterfield 8," the name of a book about a girl who was not a bit better than she should be and whose life ended ingloriously and no doubt painfully one night in the paddles of a ferry.

There's "Northside 777," a movie based on the true story of how James Stewart got a man out of prison (like Don Ameche) without the telephone and Bette Davis ruled England).

And who in the world (over the age of 30, edies Boss No. 2) can forget a splendid old tale named famous by Glenn Miller, called "Pennsylvania 6-5000?"

Well, here we have "WYman 6"—the newest indication of Glades growing pains.

Therefore I think we should all pay attention to the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company's strict orders on the use of the old and new telephone books.

"Please continue to use the old directory until 2 a.m. of Sunday, March 4, and then dispose of it."

Party dogs, arise! Let us put our best paws forward and co-operate. Do not repeat do not go to bed Saturday night like a bunch of "uninterested slobs! Stay up, call all the other dogs you can think of referring to the book, of course.

Then, as Saturday eases toward Sunday at 2 a.m., begin making suitable preparations to greet "WYman 6" telephone book:

Place the dog-eared old telephone book in a flat tin pan. Baste well with kerosene. Lift the dripping book and rattle the pages so the kerosene penetrates each sheet. Keep your eye on the clock.

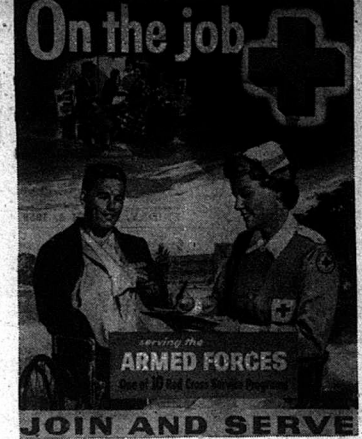

And as the hands hit 2 a.m. light a match and drop it into the pan.

Later, as your paws and ears are being bandaged, just think how satisfying it will be to lean back (ouch) and say in a quiet bark (ouch), I kept the faith with Southern Bell.

Now bring on WYman 6.

Miss Cromartie Is Nutrition Speaker

Miss Alice Cromartie, extension specialist in nutrition from Tallahassee spoke to members of Ocoosa and Belle Glade school 4-H groups, Mrs. Hazel Littlefield's home economics classes, and to members of the Home Demonstration Club on nutritious foods, and how to lose or gain weight for health."

At the Belle Glade elementary school auditorium.

According to Mrs. Dorothy Irvin, sponsor for the 4-H groups, she described a basic pattern for eating, saying it was as essential as a pattern in sewing. She mentioned that in the pattern there are four types of food, (1) milk and dairy foods, (2) breads and cereals, (3) fruits and vegetables, and (4) proteins. She also said that when too many sugars and fats are consumed, one gains weight, and also suffers skin troubles.

She cautioned against the practice of skipping breakfast to lose weight, reminding her audience that one third of the days food needs should be taken at that time. She also said that from 18 to 19 have the poorest food habits, and reminded them that carbonated drinks provide little beside calories.

She told her audience what a good meal consists of, and mentioned the need for using some breads and cereals. She said that Florida provides an abundance of fruits rich in Vitamin C, including not only the citrus fruits, but strawberries, guavas and papayas. She said that a proper diet is the best way to lose or gain weight.

Improved Pastures Need Lime For Top Production

GAINESVILLE — Lime is essential in establishing and maintaining improved pastures, says Dr. Nathan Gammon, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station soils chemist.

It plays three roles in pasture programs. Lime is essential for plant and animal nutrition; it reduces the leaching of fertilizers; and it increases the soil pH (alkalinity) to more favorable ranges for growth of desirable herbage.

Actually, Gammon says, the amount of lime necessary for minimum requirements is relatively small. Yet many soils do not contain enough calcium to meet these requirements. Thus, lime may be just as essential for plant growth as the three major elements of fertilizer.

Most improved pasture herbage makes their best growth at soil pH values higher than that usually encountered in virgin Florida soils, Gammon says. Adding lime thus will help this situation, and likewise increase the microbiological population which in turn is helpful to crops.

Soil pH for most grass pastures should be about 5.5, Gammon says. Bermudas, however, may take a range of 6.0. Clovers should have a pH of 6.5, but no higher, as little improvement is noted above that figure.

Gammon stresses that soil tests disclose the right amounts of lime to be added. The average fairways soil will take 2,000 to 3,000 pounds per acre to raise the soil pH 1.5 for grass-clover mixtures. The same soil will require two or three tons of lime to get to pH 6.5.

Gammon stresses to apply lime before planting, so the lime can be thoroughly mixed with the surface soil by disking. He emphasized that lime must be added to soil at regular intervals, since it "slips away" in animals' bodies. These losses are run from 500 to 700 pounds yearly, depending on the pH maintenance.

Church Activities In The Glades

1,500 Poiled In Church Census Conducted Sunday By Canvassers

Some 1,500 persons were interviewed by 75 canvassers last Sunday when Pahokee churches conducted a church census in the community.

Pastors, reporting that they consider the survey very successful, met Tuesday night at First Baptist Church to classify the census cards.

They found that 101 persons had no church preference. Sixteen faiths and denominations were listed in the survey, including Lutheran, Congregational, Greek Orthodox, Christian Science, Christian or Disciples of Christ, Jewish, Roman Catholic, Church of the Nazarene, Episcopal, Church of God, Church of God of Prophecy, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, Evangelical Reformed, and Pentecostal Church of the New Testament.

Pastors thanked all who participated in the survey, as canvassers or as interviewers.

AMERICAN INDIANS ARE METH. PROGRAM SUBJECT

About 35 children of the primary and junior departments of Pahokee First Methodist church school will present a program centering around "American Indians" at the church meeting Monday night. Mrs. Arch Blakeley and Mrs. Robert Hutton, teachers of the course, will direct the program. Members of the Miriam Circle will serve as hospitality hostesses with Mrs. Ruth Meredith, chairman. Mrs. Frank Froneo, president, will preside. The nominating committee composed of Mrs. J. M. Elliott, Mrs. Clyde Canipe, Mrs. J. M. Hutton, Mrs. J. M. Lair and Mrs. J. V. Thomas will report a list of nominees for new officers.

LATTER DAY SAINTS PLAN SCRIPTURE THEME SUNDAY

The Relief Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will have charge of the church meeting Sunday night and the theme for the evening will be "Search Ye The Scriptures." The theme will be given by Sister Nellie Woods. There will be five other leaders who will speak on their favorite Bible quotations.

The church had as guests Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lawrence of Miami, and Mr. and Mrs. Sanders Lawrence of High Point, N.C. Lawrence is on the high council of the South Florida District and head of the genealogy department of the district. He spoke on "You Alone Own Your Father's Business." She gave each person present three genealogy charts to be filled out and be kept on record for his or her personal benefit.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 3 Don't Pay Tax on Wrong Income

(This is one of a series of articles on Federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Florida Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

You may think that listing your income is the easiest part of tax filing. Actually, according to the Internal Revenue Service, this is where taxpayers make the greatest number of errors.

Not all the money that you have come to you during 1955 needs to be reported on your tax form.

For example, you may have received "dividends" on an insurance policy, but these are not taxable income, because they are considered merely a refund of part of the premium you paid.

Don't include Social Security benefits, Railroad Retirement Act benefits, or payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws. Don't list gifts you received, although the giver may have to pay a gift tax. However, tips and other compensation for services must be reported.

Do not report inheritances and bequests. The estate may be taxed but not the recipient.

Personal Damages Not Taxed Damages received for personal injuries are not considered taxable income, whether awarded by a court or settled out of court.

When listing your income you can also report about government benefits to veterans and their families, except non-disability retirement pay and the interest on terminal leave bonds.

The interest on state and municipal bonds is also tax exempt. Although compensation for service is generally taxable, whether paid in money or otherwise, the law specifically exempts the rental value of a parsonage furnished to a minister.

BELLE GLADE 1ST BAPTIST LIBRARY TO BE STARTED

A church library will be set up at Belle Glade First Baptist Church Mar. 1 by Miss Lolita Hamilton of the Florida Baptist Convention church library department.

Mrs. Clyde Parrish will serve as the regular church librarian, and will be assisted by Mrs. Iva Schoeppe, G. W. McClure, and Mrs. Genevieve Grove. A dedication service will be held on Wednesday evening.

The Training Union will sponsor study courses on church membership during the month of March. For those of junior age, W. L. Cunningham will teach "My Church and I." Mrs. U. W. Malcolm will teach "The Challenge of Church Membership" to the young people; and Dr. N. Q. Geer, Bunn McCall, Jack Little, and Mills Byrom will teach a class on "My Church Membership" to the adults. Rev. U. W. Malcolm will teach a class on Baptist membership entitled "These Things We Believe."

A week of prayer for home missions will be observed by the WMU Mar. 5-9. There will be special programs planned by the society on Mar. 14 and 21, including a service by Rev. W. L. Parrish, president. Mrs. Edrie Maxwell is in charge of the program.

TV SHOW FEATURED AT SS CLASS PARTY

A "TV Show" was a feature of the entertainment of the Christian Fellowship Class party held at Pahokee First Methodist church social rooms Monday night. The program was presented by Mrs. J. L. Reeves in charge of entertainment, assisted by Mrs. Melvin Spooner. Mr. Reeves assisted as emcee.

Participating as "Man on the Street" was Louis Mims and Ed Carver was in charge of the "64,000 Question." Mrs. Hugh Branch and Horace Scruggs gave special music numbers. There were 32 present.

Pahokee Meth. Group To Meet

The commission on finance of Pahokee Methodist Church will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday night at 7:30. The district board will meet Thursday evening. Among other matters of the meeting will be the approving of a church budget for the coming year. Ralph Johnson is chairman of the finance group and Jack Spencer is chairman of the official board.

Beth Shalom Synagogue of Belle Glade is being hurried toward completion, as picture shows. The new home of Glades Jewish Community will cost an estimated $7,000, and be 28 x 50 feet. CBS construction, Al Mulach is giving considerable time and labor to the building, according to the congregation's president, Jonas Lehrer, who said only the wonderful cooperation of residents in the Belle Glade and Pahokee area could have made the new synagogue possible.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, Belle Glade CHRISTIAN SCIENCE GROUP, Canal Point

Man's God-given strength, assurance, and ability will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" is the Golden Text from Daniel (10:19): "O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong." Among the selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following (203:13): "Spiritual perception brings out the possibilities of being destroyed by balance on aught but God, and so makes man the image of his Maker in deed and in truth."

Scriptural selections will include the following from II Corinthians (3:4, 5): "And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing of ourselves; but that our sufficiency is of God."

Sunday night marked the celebration of the Holiday of Purim. A short reading of the Megillah (Story of Esther) was read by the president, Jonas Lehrer. The children participated in the reading by blowing out the name of Haman (the tyrant) with noise makers.

A skit entitled, "Judgment Day," was presented by the older members of the Sunday School class. It depicted the Jewish Holidays' resentment Purim as being classed with them to be remembered throughout generations. Each participant was dressed in a costume representing the particular holiday represented. Margie Kahn and Iris Blum were the two judges; Chamukha was played by Stevie Kaufman. Passover by Linda Rabin. Farrel Kaufman and Marilyn Rabin portrayed Shevach and Succos in order. Purim was acted out by Sally Mason. The announcer was Richard Mason.

After Chip Kaufman, Harvey Pearlman, George McGrill, Michelle Lee, and Sally finished their recitals of Purim poems the party was ended with everyone partaking in the eating of the Humantashen. More than 35 people attended.

President Jonas Lehrer complemented Dr. Robert Golden for a "magnificent job" he has been doing as instructor for the Sunday school class.

KITE-FLYING IS FUN; CAREFUL!

"Go fly a kite" is the non-cautious advice to adventurous Glades boys and girls given this week by Reddy Kilowatt, the fun-loving caricature of Florida Power & Light Company.

But Reddy has come up with what might be life-saving hints on how to fly a kite—safely.

Reddy's an old kite-flyer, himself, and cautions youngsters (and their dads) to:

1. Keep kites away from electric wires and television antennas.
2. Use dry cotton string and never use metal on kites.
3. Fly kites in level areas without rocks or trees so you'll have plenty of room to run. Never use streets or highways.
4. Make sure the cord on your kite doesn't have any metal in it and that it is dry and properly coiled. Don't use wet cord or cord with tinsel or that is made with little strands of wire. If cords like these come in contact with electric lines, they might lose your life.
5. Don't climb trees or poles to free your kite. Dad would rather buy another kite than have you hurt from a fall or from coming in contact with electric lines.

"When the March winds blow," says Reddy, "Go to it, boys and girls—fly your kites ... but do it safely!"

Most of the major inland areas of the Antarctic continent are named for females, while most mountain ranges and peaks, glaciers, bays and islands are named for males.

His latest gimmick is a hand-bill titled "Do-It-Yourselfers! Why Not Grease Your Own Car?"

Then he follows with two paragraphs about all the grease you'll need—the full set of wrenches, spray gun, grease gun, four jacks—the ability to work on your back with a face full of goo, and at the very end there's this line: "Or, if that's too much trouble, we'll do the job for you."

SHOWER SAFETY FIRST

Don't skimp on bathroom safety, experts advise, especially where children are concerned. Some 90,000 persons are injured yearly in bathroom accidents and falls, mostly in tub and shower. Newest protective device is the thermostatic water temperature regulator shown in use above. It takes the place of the usual two to four hand valves, and automatically maintains the water temperature at the point desired by the bather. Failure of cold water supply instantly shuts off the shower. A thermostatic safety limit prevents delivery of water above 110 degrees, protecting against scalding water. Made by the Powers Regulator Company, Skokie, Ill., the control is sold by plumbing contractors.

THE WINGS OF A NEW U.S. SUPERSONIC JET FIGHTER ARE PROPORTIONATELY THINNER THAN A DOUBLE-EDGED RAZOR BLADE. SO SHARP ARE ITS WING LEADING EDGES THAT THEY MUST BE COVERED WITH RUBBER "GLOVES" TO PREVENT GROUND CREWS FROM CUTTING THEMSELVES WHILE THE PLANE IS BEING SERVICED.

THE LUXURY LINERS, UNITED STATES AND AMERICA, COULD BE PLACED SIDE BY SIDE ON THE FLIGHT DECK OF NAVY'S AIRCRAFT CARRIER FORRESTAL.

TO PROVE THE STRENGTH OF A GIANT U.S. JET BOMBER, THE MANUFACTURER HAD TO SUBJECT THE PLANE'S WING TO A STRESS LOAD OF MORE THAN ONE BILLION POUNDS—AS MUCH AS THE COMBINED WEIGHT OF 8 FORRESTAL AIRCRAFT CARRIERS—BEFORE THE WING COLLAPSED.

Carleton pointed out that if the railroad couldn't afford to build the overpass requested by the majority of the spokesmen in the Belle Glade Chosen area, it could ask the ICC for higher rates. ## Legion Almost Has No Okay - No Fair

PAHOKEE — A delegation of residents from the vicinity of Pahokee American Legion Home appeared before City Council Monday night to protest the forthcoming fair on the Legion grounds.

Council put over the decision as to whether the fair should be permitted to operate on the grounds until a second session Tuesday night, and okayed it with certain qualifications.

No residential trailers or any tent-living will be permitted on the grounds during the fair, the city governing body stipulated.

Next year's fair will probably be out of the city limits and removed from the residential areas where the noise and traffic disturb nearby residences, Legionnaires indicated.
